Jesus is our Savior King.

Jesus fed the multitudes with bread and fish. He feeds us with his Body and Blood in the Eucharist. Many fed by the loaves and fishes misunderstood the meaning of this miracle and wanted to make Him king. We took to Jesus as our Savior and King who has revealed the way to salvation and opened the way to eternal life.

St. Ignatius of Loyola– July 31st

St. Ignatius of Loyola originally planned to be a soldier, but when a French cannonball shattered his leg, his military career abruptly ended. Incidentally, his leg was originally so badly set that it had to be rebroken and reset- without the benefit of anesthetics. While St. Ignatius is the patron of soldiers, he would also be a good patron for returning students since he was in his mid-thirties when he went back to school and didn't graduate until he was forty-three.

Going back to school today isn't the oddity it was in Ignatius's time; people who didn't have a chance to go to college when they were young or who had to leave before they graduated are returning in droves.

Older students have many advantages over younger ones. Because they want to be in school, they tend to work harder and to apply themselves more diligently. They are serious about their studies because they are serious about themselves.

If you want to go back to school, what's stopping you? A man once said that he always wanted to be a teacher, but if he went back to school, he would be in his fifties before he graduated. How old will you be if you don't go back? he was asked.

If St. Ignatius could attend classes with students half his age, then still go on to found the Jesuits, one of the greatest religious orders in the world, there's still time for you to be whatever you want to be.

Prayer / Reflection...

Discovering one's own riches

I lived on the shady side of the road and watched my neighbors' gardens across the way reveling in the sunshine.

I felt I was poor

and from door to door went in my hunger.
The more they gave me from their careless abundance
the more I became aware of my beggar's bowl.

Till one morning I awoke from my sleep
at the sudden opening of my door
and you came and asked for alms.

In despair I broke open the lid of my chest
and was startled into finding my own wealth.

Amen.

Rabindranath Tagore
