Your life must lead others to Christ!

To lead others to Christ does not mean that you need to be quoting Scripture all the time or acting pious in front of others. What Jesus wants us to do is to live his teachings in the actions of our lives, by living in a Christ-like way that has a positive influence on others.

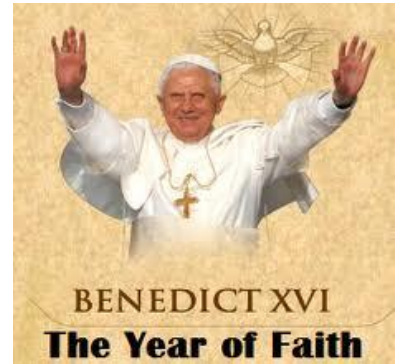

Year of Faith: Oct. 11, 2012-Nov. 24, 2013

"...They called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith..."(Acts 14:27).

In the Acts of the Apostles, we learn that God has opened the door of faith for the early Church. But did you know that God has opened the door of faith for each one of us and he invites us to step through the threshold into a deeper relationship with him. The upcoming Year of Faith is an opportunity for every Catholic to turn towards Jesus Christ, encounter him in the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist and rediscover the Faith and Church.

With his Apostolic Letter of October 11, 2011, Porta Fidei, Pope Benedict XVI declared that a "Year of Faith" will begin on October 11, 2012 and conclude on November 24, 2013. October 11, 2012, the first day of the Year of Faith, is the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council. . . (Vatican II) and also the twentieth anniversary of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. During the Year of Faith, Catholics are asked to study and reflect on the documents of Vatican II and the catechism so that they may deepen their knowledge of the faith.

"The 'door of faith' (Acts 14:27) is always open for us, ushering us into the life of communion with God and offering entry into his Church."---Pope Benedict XVI, Apostolic Letter Porta Fidei for the Indiction of the Year of Faith. The upcoming Year of Faith is a "summons to an authentic and renewed conversion to the Lord, the One Savior of the world" (Porta Fidei 6). In other words, the Year of Faith is an opportunity for Catholics to experience a conversion – to turn back to Jesus and enter into a deeper relationship with him. The "door of faith" is opened at one's baptism, but during this year Catholics are called to open it again, walk through it and rediscover and renew their relationship with Christ and his Church.

Angels and Children’s Liturgy

It is so good to have many children coming up for the Liturgy and we are very thankful to all the parents who bring their children and angels and to all the teachers. We have a good number of them and they cover almost all Masses on weekends. There is one Mass that we will not be able to have Children’s Liturgy on as there is no one to help lead this class that is the 9:00 am Mass on the 1st Sunday of the month for the children and angels and we don’t want them to be disappointed. So, if there is anyone who would like to help out with it, please contact Lisa at 780-939-5185 or talk to fr. Ignacy after Mass.

We also thank you to all children (and their parents) for making contributions to the Restoration of the Church for these two months (as it was willed by the children and teachers). Thank you.
