We are sent out by Holy Mother Church with the Good News of Jesus Christ.

It has been said that the Church can be compared to Jerusalem which was regarded as a loving mother to the Jewish people. Just as babies find comfort on the laps of their mothers, so are we to find comfort in our relationship with the Church, our Holy Mother.

Prayer / Reflection...

Instruments of the Lord

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love.

Where there is injury, pardon.

Where there is doubt, faith.

Where there is darkness, light.

Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;

to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love.

For it is giving that we receive;

it is pardoning that we are pardoned;

it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

St. Benedict – July 11th

The expression, he died with his boots on, originally referred to someone who died unexpectedly (probably from a gunshot wound) who didn't even have time to take off his boots. In time, however, it has come to mean a person who never gives up on life.

St. Benedict built twelve monasteries; one, Mount Cassino, was rebuilt three times. Under his rule, monasteries became sanctuaries of learning and hospitality in the Middle ages. Without the monasteries to keep the light of learning lit, the Dark Ages would have been dark indeed.

St. Benedict's influence on monastic life was so great that his rule, or plan, for monks became the standard throughout Europe. Even today, many religious orders operate under the Rule of St. Benedict. True to form, Benedict died with his boots on (more likely his sandals). Although he needed some support from his monks, he was standing in the chapel with his hands raised to heaven when he died.

Many of us fear old age. We worry that we will become a burden to our families and to ourselves. Although life doesn't come with guarantees, the saints encourage us not to worry what might or might not happen. They point out that even when we can no longer work physically, we can still perform spiritual labors, such as forgiving those who have hurt us, praying for others, and comforting the sorrowful.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK! ... "The perfect love would be one that gives all and expects nothing in return.

For if one expects nothing, and asks nothing, they can never be deceived or disappointed.

It is only when love demands that it brings on pain".

Have a Blessed Week
