Life is best when loving the Lord and living his Word wholeheartedly.

Half-heartedness never brings the best results in anything. Living one's life with the wholehearted desire to love the Lord and live by both the Commandments and the precepts taught and live by Christ, will bring a fulfillment in life far beyond one's dreams because it leads us on the path to salvation.

Prayer / Reflection...

Bealitudes for carers

The good Samaritan was someone who cared.

Blessed are those who care:

they will let people know they are loved.

Blessed are those who are gentle: they will help people grow.

as the sun helps the buds to unfold.

Blessed are those who listen: they will lighten many a burden.

Blessed are those who know how to let go:

they will have the joy of seeing people find themselves.

Blessed are those who, when nothing can be done or said,

do not walk away, but remain to provide a comforting and supportive presence:

they will help the sufferer to bear the unbearable.

Blessed are those who recognize their own need to receive:

they will be able to give all the better.

And blessed are those who give without hope of return:

they will give people an experience of God.

St. Bonaventure July 15th St. Bonaventure, known as “the seraphic doctor,” was born at Bagnorea in Tuscany, in 1221. He received the name of Bonaventure in consequence of an exclamation of St. Francis of Assisi, when, in response to the pleading of the child’s mother, the saint prayed for John’s recovery from a dangerous illness, and, foreseeing the future greatness of the little John, cried out “o Buona ventura” – O good fortune!

At the age of twenty-two St. Bonaventure entered the Franciscan Order. Having made his vows, he was sent to Paris to complete his studies under the celebrated doctor Alexander of Hales, an Englishman and a Franciscan. After the latter’s death he continued his course under his successor, John of Rochelle. In Paris he became the intimate friend of the great St. Thomas Aquinas,. He received the degree of Doctor, together with St. Thomas Aquinas, ceding to his friend against the latter’s inclination, the honor of having it first conferred upon him. Like St. Thomas Aquinas, he enjoyed the friendship of the holy King, St. Louis.

At the age of thirty-five he was chosen General of his order and restored a perfect calm where peace had been disturbed by internal dissensions. He did much for his Order and composed The Life of St. Francis. He also assisted at the translation of the relics of St. Anthony of Padua. He was nominated Archbishop of York by Pope Clement IV, but he begged not to be forced to accept that dignity. Gregory X obliged him to take upon himself a greater one, that of Cardinal and Bishop of Albano, one of the six suffragan Sees of Rome. He died while he was assisting at the Second Council of Lyons, on July 15, 1274.

The Parish Office will be closed July 18th & 19th.
