Being together in community can strengthen our relationship with God.

In today's Scriptures, we find the believing community is gathered together. After Jesus' death, the disciples encountered the Risen Lord while they were together, and a sense of unity is seen as a strength of the early Church. So, while coming together for worship is not the only way, it is a major way in which we encounter God.

Celebrate The Canonization

It is with great joy that this April 27th, Divine Mercy Sunday, we witness the supreme honor of canonization of not one but two popes, Blessed John XXIII and John Paul II. They are canonized as saints in a historic solemn liturgical rite officiated by Pope Francis.

It is through this Rite of Canonization that the Supreme Pontiff, in an act which is protected from error by the Holy Spirit, elevates a person to the universal veneration of the Church.

Saint John Paul II and saint John XXIII, pray for us.

 We must always remember this.
 The actual words matter less.”

Pope John Paul II
