A Father Is:

There in every memory
 See his love and care
 Strength and hands to count on
 Freely he does share
 Provider, toil so faithfully
 To make our dreams come true
 Give strong and tender discipline
 Though it is hard to do
 A Father is God's chosen one
 To lead the family
 And point it to His will for life
 Of love and harmony...

Sue Skeen

Father's Day Prayer

God our Father,
 in your wisdom and love you made all things.
 Bless these men,
 that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers.
 Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.
 Grant that we, their sons and daughters,
 may honor them always
 with a spirit of profound respect.
 Grant this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

To Those Who Tend Our Garden Of Promise

There is a place
 that is very old
 Beyond an open gate
 All have been invited there
 Where friends & loved ones wait.

It holds eternal promise of everlasting peace.
 No pain or sorrow ever comes and tear drops there have ceased.

A Special

Thank you to ALL who tended our garden of promise where our loved ones wait.

To those who cleaned, raked, cut, or sowed grass, unsolicited & unnoticed like the Angels they are. St. Jean Baptiste Parish is truly grateful and appreciate everything you did. We have a beautiful cemetery and this is because of the silent crew that do so much work, how grateful we are for your many hours of hard work.

Thank You

First Friday Adoration

On the First Friday of July we will have a day of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. The church will be open between 9:00 am and 12:00 pm and everyone will be able to come for longer or shorter period of time to spend with Eucharistic Jesus. We begin with Mass at 8:30 am, then the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for Adoration and prayer.

There is a sign up sheet at the back of the church so that at least 2 people sign for each hour to make sure there is always someone present in the church with Blessed Sacrament exposed.

We invite everyone to come during a day to spend some time with our Lord.

St. Aloysius Gonzaga (1568-1591) – June 21st

The oldest son of Marquis Ferrante of Castiglione, who was in the service of Philip II of Spain, he was born on March 9 at the family castle in Lombardy. He was destined for the military by his father, but early in his childhood decided on a religious life. He was sent to Florence to be educated in 1577, joined the court of the Duke of Mantua, who had appointed his father governor of Montserrat two years later, suffered a kidney attack that was to leave him with digestive trouble the rest of his life, and began to practice great austerities and to devote himself to religious practices and teaching catechism to the poor of Castiglione. While at the court of Prince Diego of the Asturias in Spain, he desired to enter the Jesuits, was refused permission by his father, and on their return to Italy in 1584 renewed his plea. He finally broke down his father, joined the Jesuits in Rome in 1585, and was sent to Milan to study. Because of his poor health he was recalled to Rome, made his vows in 1587, and when a plague struck the city in 1587, served in a hospital opened by the Jesuits.

Aloysius' health was so poor that he received Holy Viaticum and Extreme Unction on several occasions. It was revealed to him that he would pass on the Octave of Corpus Christi, and though he appeared much better in the days preceding the Feast, Saint Aloysius Gonzaga did in fact turn and die on the Octave of Corpus Christi, June 21st, 1591.

He caught the plague while ministering to its victims and died after he received the last rites from St. Robert Bellarmine. Aloysius Gonzaga was canonized in 1726, was declared protector of young students by Pope Benedict XIII and patron of Catholic youth by Pope Pius XI.
