Coldest Night of the Year

On October 21, 2018, Pope Francis made a special tweet from Rome, calling Catholics around the world to take part in a Global Walk of Solidarity. Pope Francis said this: With a frenzy of refugee and migrant scapegoating happening just south of the border, now is the time to put our Catholic faith in action. Pope Francis is calling us to share a journey with our neighbors – all our neighbors, not only those who live near us, look at us, speak like us or pray like us.

Here is an opportunity to share a very special journey! You are invited to join a 2, 5 or 10 kilometer walk to support the Hope Mission and the Bissel Centre. On Saturday, February 23, 2019, you can join us at the Bissel Centre, 10527 96 Street, in Edmonton. From there, we will walk together, the distance of your choice. Dinner is served to all participants at the end of the walk. This event is a fundraising to support the homeless people of Edmonton. You can choose to pay a registration fee or to find sponsors for your walk. This event is open to all! Last year, several families and even children walked with us! If you are interested, please contact Pierre at japrouseau@shaw.ca.

SAINT PAUL - January 25

Nothing matches the zeal of a new convert, be it someone who has just quit smoking, someone who has discovered the benefits of exercise, or someone who has had a religious conversion. Most of the time, however, zeal wears off. The first rush of enthusiasm is replaced by a mundane acceptance.

When we encounter someone who manages to keep the zest alive, we are automatically attracted. Their enthusiasm and excitement is contagious and sometimes, if we are lucky, their joie de vivre rekindles our own.

Saul, the name St. Paul had before he became a Christian, was always zealous. He was so determined to persecute fellow Jews who converted to the new religion that he asked the high priest for permission to arrest all the Jewish converts at Damascus and bring them to Jerusalem.

It was on the road to Damascus that Saul had one of the greatest conversions of all time. Struck to the ground, he heard a voice asking, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" The speaker then identified himself as Jesus of Nazareth. Saul, soon-to-be Paul, had a complete change of heart. From that time on, the zeal he showed in persecuting converts paled in comparison to his zeal in making converts. What's the most impressive is that his zeal never died. Up to the time of his death, he passionately preached his convictions. In fact, his zeal bridges nearly two thousand years and his letters continue to inspire and convert millions even today.
