We have been reconciled to the Father through the Son.

We can rejoice in today's theme of God's forgiveness and mercy. He led the Israelites to the Promised Land; he has reconciled us to himself through Christ; and he is always ready to forgive, awaiting us with open arms to come and rest in his love.

In the first reading, the Israelites celebrate Passover in Gilgal, feasting on the produce of the land. Saint Paul writes, whoever is in Christ is a new creation, for God has reconciled us to himself through Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus addresses a parable to the Pharisees and scribes. The parable is of a father and his two sons, the younger of whom squanders his inheritance but returns home to be welcomed by his Father.

Laetare Sunday

(Latin for "Rejoice")
/leɪˈtɑːri/

is the fourth Sunday of Lent. The counterpart of Gaudete Sunday or third Sunday of Advent. This Sunday gets its name from the first few words (incipit) of the traditional Latin entrance (Introit) for the Mass of the day. "Laetare Jerusalem" ("Rejoice, O Jerusalem") is Latin from Isaiah 66:10. The priests wear rose vestments to express encouragement and joy.
